Death Rate On Highways Slows Today

Safety Council Still Fears New Mark May Be Set

United Press International
The death rate on the nation's highways slowed again at midday today, but safety workers remembering other holidays feared the total might turn upwards again to a new mark for the Memorial Day weekend.

They feared that as motorists came home tired and irritable from holiday outings there would be accidents in the pattern of one which ended six lives in a single crash near Cambridge, Ohio, early today. A car with six servicemen, apparently on a holiday weekend leave, collided with a truck-trailer rig and all six in the car died.

A UNITED PRESS International count at 10:45 a.m. p.d. showed 283 deaths, an average of a little more than four fatalities an hour since the holiday period began at 6 p.m. Friday.

Two deaths were laid to plane crashes, 12 persons drowned, and other accidents killed 58 persons across the nation, bringing the overall holiday count to 415.

OHIO LED THE states in the number of highway deaths with 26. Other leaders included New York and North Carolina with 17, Alabama with 16, Michigan 15, Indiana and Pennsylvania 13.

At Chicago, the National Safety Council had estimated 375 persons would die in traffic during the holiday period ending at midnight tonight, higher than the previous Memorial Day mark of 371 in 1958.

MINOR PERSONAL INJURY resulted from this two-car collision at North Palm Canyon Drive and San Raphael Road at approximately 11:25 a.m., Sunday. At right is the two-door hardtop driven by Mrs. Elfreda Gimpel, 46-9425 Kittyhawk, Los Angeles, which was in a collision with a convertible driven by Eleanor Erie Lang, 2087 Dracuna Drive, Los Angeles. Mrs. Gimpel was accompanied by her daughters, Sandra and Irene. (Desert Sun Photo)

Two Killed As Stands Collapse

Winner Had Been Runner-Up Three Times

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Jim Rathmann, three times a runner-up, won a see-saw duel with defending champion Rodger Ward in the last 150 miles today and captured the 44th 500-mile auto race for a probable prize of more than $110,000.

The race was marked by tragedy as two spectators were killed in the collapse of a homemade stand, and 50 more were injured.

RATHMANN'S VICTORY margin over Ward unofficially was three and one half seconds, but it would have been much closer except that Ward had to slow down due to diminishing fuel in the final three laps.

Until he signaled his pit crew that he couldn't keep up the 148 mile an hour pace and finish the race, he and Rathmann had exchanged the lead nearly every four laps or less over the last 56 turns of the 2 1/2 mile circuit.

BOTH WERE progressing at record speeds and Rathmann finished in the fastest time ever, 138.767 miles per hour. The old record was Ward's 135.857 last year.

Six drivers held the lead at one time or another during the chase and they set speed records at all marking points except three, after the first lap, after 110 laps and after 120 laps.

THE TWO DRIVERS put on one of the greatest man-to-man shows in a race in which the yellow caution light, which slowed the field, was on only four times, for a total of 29 minutes and 7 seconds.

In the accidents which caused the caution flag, driver Eddie Russo was hurt and hospitalized.

Parachute Jump Ends in Death

EL SINORE, Calif. — (UPI) — It was an exciting moment for Mrs. Vanda Pfeiffer. She had made parachute jumps before, but Sunday was the first time she would pull the ripcord herself instead of having it pulled automatically by a line attached to the plane.

It was too exciting, Mrs. Pfeiffer, 32, apparently was paralyzed by fear. She never pulled the cord.

With her husband and their three children watching, she tumbled 3,500 feet to the ground. Her body landed in front of about 200 spectators.

Deposed Turkey Official, Gedik, Commits Suicide

ANKARA — (UPI) — Former Interior Minister Namik Gedik, whose police battled students demonstrating against the government of former Premier Adnan Menderes, committed suicide Sunday night after a "nervous fit," an army announcement said today.

He leaped from a fourth floor window of the Ankara Military College where he had been held with former Defense Minister Ethem Menderes since the army coup Friday.

GEDIK, 49, WAS married and had two children. He had been a deputy since 1950 and served as interior minister more than six years. Before his entry into politics he was a practicing medical doctor.

The new regime of Gen. Cemal Gursel gained recognition from the United States, Great Britain and other nations today and held its first cabinet meeting to start charting the course that will bring this country back to constitutional rule through free elections.

Lease Completed

Haggarty's Store Plans Progress

Will M. Mitchell, president of Haggarty's, women's specialty store corporation, announced this week the completion of lease negotiations with Albert Taucher Enterprises, for a new Haggarty's store in Palm Springs. Opening of the fashion shop is tentatively set for Sept. 15, 1960.

The new store, Mitchell said, will have 3,000 feet of floor space and will house a boutique selection of designer fashions in addition to comprehensive collections of sportswear, misses' and junior dresses and accessories.

COMPARABLE IN size to the new Haggarty's stores in Bakersfield and La Jolla, the Palm Springs store is smaller in merchandise scope than Haggarty's locations in Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, Pasadena, Santa Ana and San Diego.

Designed by Williams & Williams, architects, the one-story building is now under construction at 205 South Palm Canyon Drive in the heart of Palm Springs shopping area.

INTERIORS OF the new shop will be along New Orleans lines, with wrought-iron grillwork and louvers used extensively. A crystal chandelier, hallmark of all Haggarty stores, will be a central feature of the shop.

Lease negotiations for the new Haggarty's Palm Springs location were handled by Charles H. Blaylock of Tolbert and Blaylock.

INDIO — The California Highway Patrol here reported today that no fatalities marked the desert area holiday traffic pattern over the weekend, and only one person required treatment from auto accident injury.

Arrests for alleged drunk driving included two at Twentynine Palms and three in Blythe.

Convict Escapees Are Captured

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. — (UPI) — Two armed convicts, who escaped from the Missouri Penitentiary and kidnapped one person, slugged two others and terrorized a family for more than three hours, were captured south of here Sunday night.

Russians Tell Of 'Retaliation'

MOSCOW — (UPI) — Soviet Defense Minister Rodion Malinovsky said today Russian rocket forces would attack any base from which a plane takes off and intrudes upon Soviet air space.

He said modern radio equipment can determine with precision when a plane takes off, follow its flight and locate its landing. Thus no nation can evade responsibility if it is involved, he said.

Cross Burning Reported at Principal's Home

A flare of weekend malicious mischief was capped early this morning by the burning of a crudely made cross on the lawn of the residence of Palm Springs High School principal Dr. Charles Webster, police reported today.

The cross, fueled by shellac thinner, was fired by youths who fled in opposite directions in two vehicles, a neighbor reported.

Sunday, a Calimesa youth was assaulted in Palm Springs by two car loads of male juveniles.

Other action in the weekend included breaking a lock of a soft drink machine on the High School grounds.

Cash, Jewelry Taken from Room

A burglar stole $445 in cash, and approximately $360 in jewelry from the hotel room of Jack Orlikoff, Los Angeles wholesale shoe salesman, he reported to police here Sunday.

Mrs. Swanner Rites Scheduled

Mrs. Marjorie Swanner, 46 years of age, wife of Thomas Swanner, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hyde died at 10:40 a.m., Sunday, in Casitas Hospital, Indio, from cancer.

Mrs. Swanner, who lived at 30-968 San Joaquin Drive, succumbed after a brief illness.

A NATIVE OF Louisiana, Mrs. Swanner had lived in Palm Springs since 1935, and in California since 1920. She had worked with her husband in the operation of his news sales business in the Palm Springs post office.

She is survived by her husband, her parents, and a sister, Mrs. Mildred Hopp, of Palm Springs. Her father was Palm Springs' mayor from 1946 to 1948.

The family requests that donations be made to the local branch of the American Cancer Society, in lieu of flowers.

Red Trawlers Said Spy Ships

STORNOWAY, Scotland — (UPI) — Russian spy ships were reported operating today off Britain's secret Hebrides rocket range and jamming vital radar communications.

British newspapers carried the reports in bannerline stories but the British government declined to confirm or deny them.

SNAKE HUNTERS CAPTURE 12 IN SHERMAN OAKS

SHERMAN OAKS, Calif. — (UPI) — Like the pioneers of the last century, residents have banded together in a cause to rid the area of a common foe—the poisonous rattlesnake.

The deadly reptiles have been invading uninhabited areas of this Los Angeles suburb in past months because of dry weather which has made water in the foothills scarce. Grading for new homes also has uprooted many of the rattlers.

About 70 modern vigilantes gathered Sunday and held a concerted drive through the bush-covered hilly area, capturing five poisonous rattlers and seven other nonpoisonous snakes. The longest was 38 inches.

The volunteers, some of whom went along simply for the adventure of the hunt, planned the hunt last week after more than 24 rattlers had been killed in the neighborhood in the past month. At least two rattlesnakes during that time were found and killed in homes.

LOOKING OVER part of the collection of presidential campaign buttons collected by Dr. Charles M. Markell of Desert Hot Springs, who is busier than ever this year trying to collect buttons of this year's election, are Anne Corman and Joanne Lehfeldt. DHS MEDIC HAS LOTSA 'CANIDATES'

By Ellen Saunders
This being a presidential election year, Dr. Charles M. Markell of 66-184 Acorna and Desert Hot Springs — and Pasadena — is going to be a little busier than ever.

Not that the doctor is going to desert his dental practice for a political office — it's just that he collects political buttons and he figures with the number of Democratic aspirants now in the field there will be plenty for him to collect.

ALTHOUGH DR. Markell has been saving buttons for the past 20 years — "they came in handy you know" — it wasn't until a year and a half ago that he sorted them out, decided to concentrate on buttons used in national political campaigns and now has 300 of them — no two alike.

All are the pin type buttons which rose to popularity in the 1890's. Some are penny size, others large as a silver dollar. The majority are made of celluloid although there are a few Alf Landon buttons fashioned in brown and yellow felt to resemble the Kansas sunflower.

Many bear the portraits of candidates displayed against a background of red, white and blue. A few carry slogans such as "We don't Want Eleanor Either," "I Want To Be a Captain, Too," and "No Third Term." One is a large flasher button which reveals a smiling Ike.

THE OLDEST AND most valuable buttons in the collection date back to McKinley's presidential campaign in 1896. Each president since McKinley is represented by several buttons — 24 pertain to Franklin D. Roosevelt. There are buttons which were issued for such losers in presidential elections as Wilkie, Stevenson, Al Smith and Dewey. And others for many who sought to be their party's standard bearers — Stassen, Kefauver, Harriman and Robert Taft.

"Millions of Americans get fun out of collecting buttons," says Dr. Markell, "but there are only about 200,000 of us who specialize in political buttons. J. Doyle Dewitt, president of the Travelers Insurance Company, has one of the largest collections. Most of us belong to the American Political Items Collectors Association which has its headquarters in Montclair, N. Y."

DR. MARKELL obtains most of his buttons by swapping. "Our association has a monthly magazine and I insert an ad offering to swap buttons for stamps. I'm not a man to throw things away." (That's the understatement of the year," whispered his wife, Mary), and now I find I can put my collection of cigar bands and stamps to good use."

Some buttons have been acquired in more unorthodox ways, he admits. There was the day he commented on a button he saw on the overcoat of a fellow traveler who was waiting for a bus. "You like it," queried the stranger, "it's yours, I just pinned it on to cover up a moth hole." "All I would like to see," mused the doctor, "is a good race for the Republican nomination, then my collection would really grow." "Heaven forbid," murmured his wife.

MOVIE PRODUCERS WITHDRAW OFFER TO VIDEO WRITERS

HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — Motion picture producers have withdrawn their contract offers to television writers but scheduled new talks this week in an effort to end the 19-week strike.

The alliance of television film producers and the Association of Motion Picture Producers also indicated they are not considering a counter offer submitted by the Writers Guild of America. The writers made their proposal after rejecting the producers' offer last Wednesday by a 281 to 196 vote.

AMPP also announced agreement on a four-year contract with the Composers and Lyricists Guild of America. Details were withheld on the pact which covers payment for scoring both theatrical and television films.

2 Desert Areas To Get County Seal-Coat Work

Two area projects are included in a proposed maintenance seal coat program to be conducted by the State Division of Highways in Riverside and San Bernardino counties this summer, according to Clyde V. Kane, district engineer, San Bernardino.

Bids for the program, which encompasses a total of 43½ miles in the two counties, will be opened June 30 in Los Angeles. Area projects include U. S. Highway 60 - 70 - 99 beginning 2¼ miles east of the east city limit of Cabazon and extending easterly 4½ miles, and State Sign Route 74 (Palms - 10 - Pines Highway) between Lake Hemet Road, easterly approximately 17 miles.

EARHART DEATH BY SAIPAN JAPANESE REVIVED AGAIN

SAN MATEO, CALIF. (UPI) — A woman who formerly lived on Saipan Island has revived the story that Amelia Earhart might have been executed by Japanese soldiers.

The San Mateo Times said in a copyright story Friday that Mrs. Josephine Blanco Akiyama, who now lives in San Mateo, told of a plane that landed on Saipan at the approximate time of the famous aviatrix' disappearance on July 2, 1937.

MRS. AKIYAMA, who was 11 at the time, said she saw the woman pilot from a distance of about 100 feet and that her appearance was that of Miss Earhart.

Miss Earhart and her navigator, Frederick Noonan, were en route from Lae, New Guinea, to Howland Island on a round the world flight.

IF THEY landed at Saipan they would have been approximately 3,000 miles from their Howland destination and some 45 degrees off course. Noonan was regarded as one of the world's best navigators.

Messages received from Miss Earhart by the Coast Guard cutter, Itasca, stationed at Howland, indicated she and Noonan believed they were over or near Howland but were unable to sight it because of the weather and light conditions. Authorities generally assumed they ran out of fuel and went down in the ocean.

MAN FLEES HOME FOR QUIET WOODS

NEW LISKEARD, Ont. (UPI)—A 114-year-old man is somewhere in the peace and quiet of the bushland north of Kirkland Lake, Ont., today prospecting for gold and ignoring the modern world and its noisy life.

William Apaczewski should have been retired to an old age home years ago. He was, but he would not stay.

THE LAST TIME he visited civilization was two years ago, when he became a winter tenant at Anne Gibson's home for the aged, at Dawson's point east of here. "He's a big strapping man," Mrs. Gibson said, "about six foot two inches tall and weighing about 180 pounds."

Two winters ago he rebelled at the noise of the radio in Mrs. Gibson's small home for the aged.

WHEN OTHER TENANTS listened to the radio, "He got mad and shook all over. He'd start to throw things and if an axe was around, he'd take that to the radio," she said. "The others were terrified."

One day the tenants took a vote and decided 14 to one that they would listen to a news broadcast. Apaczewski packed up and headed into the bush with two friends to look for gold.

SINCE THEN Mrs. Gibson has lost touch with him. Recent publicity, however, has made her concerned and she plans to contact welfare officials in Kirkland Lake to see if they can find Apaczewski.

"I'm interested in him," Mrs. Gibson said, "but I don't want to take him back."

Government Will Scrutinize Tax Reports in Future

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Internal revenue officials warned taxpayers today they may be asked to show records for business expenses even if they don't report their expense accounts on income tax returns.

TAXPAYERS WHO account to their employers for their expenses and reimbursements generally do not have to report them to the government.

But Internal Revenue Service (IRS) agents going over such firms' returns also are looking at the way the boss checks up on his employees' expense accounts.

IF THE AGENTS think the boss' rules are lax, they may ask employees to produce records to show their actual expenses.

Persons who cannot prove their actual business expenses were as great as their reimbursements are likely to be required to pay income tax on the difference, official said.

No Think-Through

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The U.S. spy plane episode, like the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki 15 years ago this summer, shows the could-be-fatal flaw in our best-on-earth country. Our democratic freedoms of opportunity and inquiry, as well as our profit system and constructive genius, have for more than a century — up till very recently — given us an overwhelming supremacy in technological achievements of peace and war.

But where we have faltered is in the thinking through of our achievements. We know the means, but not the meanings. We act with expedition, but brood at length. No other country has killed so many people at a single stroke — or been so sorry about it. No other country, despite temporary setbacks, is likely to build better planes and missiles — and to have less certitude about the use of them.

IF YOU ARE IN a mood to dwell upon the theme of American inadequacy in thick-thought there is a book for you in "No High Ground" by the two Washington correspondents Fletcher Knebel and Charles W. Bailey II.

It is an anniversary account of the decisions and actions which resulted in the A-bombing of Japan in August, 1945. The story is told in high-fidelity journalism and presented in newly-reported detail with the impassiveness of death itself. The authors present no viewpoint — save that of awe.

IT IS A BOOK to make you think, not entirely about the irreversible past but also about the impetus which continuously carries our country to irrevocable deeds. I am not one for national blame-giving and gnashing of teeth. The USA has done more for the world than to the world, and often seems to do more for others than for ourselves — but the case here is that, for lack of think-through, we end up with a big achievement and no policy to match it.

In an earlier book than this one, General Albert Wedemeyer complains that the only known military objective of World War II was to kill Germans and Japs. We didn't intend, for World War II, because we didn't have a plan of our own that is what happened.

AFTER READING "No High Ground," you may feel like demanding that a search for the meanings of large military and political projects go lock-step with the development of the means. Once the plan to make an atomic bomb was assigned to General Leslie Richard Groves and the assembly of the Manhattan Engineering District was fairly begun, the things that would eventually happen at Hiroshima were scientifically predictable.

Responsible persons knew that this weapon was "different" both in its capacity to kill and in its probable capacity to afflict the living and generations to come with horrors in disease and monstrosities for children.

BUT VERY EARLY in the Manhattan project, there was a point of no return. By the time the bombs were completed and tested, that fateful power of decision had passed from the bomb-makers and the bomb-droppers. President Truman is often said to have been the yes-or-no man — but was he? Realistically, he had no choice but to permit the use of a ready-made weapon that would end the war without a bloody invasion of Japan.

The scientific advisory committee — Fermi, Lawrence, Compton, Oppenheimer — was a cross-section of nationalities, temperaments, ideologies and meditations. But having worked hard and long on a task of enormous scientific significance and of huge outlays in public money, could they call everything off?

WAR SECRETARY Stimson, perhaps the one intellectual and moral giant of the lot, made up his mind and never looked back because, as is written in his memoirs, "The face of war is the face of death."

Once launched, a massive program becomes unstoppable — even uncontrollable. Why was Nagasaki bombed while the Japanese cabinet was meeting on surrender terms? Only because we had no policy. Why do we find ourselves improvising years later with plans of atoms — for peace and open skies? Again, it is because we act first — think last. —Holes Alexander

Hardly a Stairway to the Stars

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Here sleep the brave who sink to rest,
 By all their country's wishes blest,
 When Spring, with dewy fingers cold,
 Returns to deck their hallowed mold,
 She there shall dress a sweeter sod
 Than fancy's feet have ever trod.

This is Memorial Day and I do not feel like being facetious with the rhyme of my own.

THE ABOVE is the first verse of an ode written by William Collins to those who gave their lives to a cause.

Although written in 1745, long before we ever thought of a Memorial Day, it seems appropriate for today.

I cribbed it because all I could think of to write was our three-day holiday traffic.

Which will probably create many more memorials.

MEMORIAL DAY was originally proclaimed to honor the Hero Dead of the Civil War. It has now broadened to take in all of those who have gone before — especially the soldiers and sailors and marines of all of our wars.

Memorial Day is being observed today in all of the states of the Union, plus the District of Columbia and our island possessions with the exception of Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, South Carolina and Texas.

IN VIRGINIA TODAY is Confederate Memorial Day. In Florida, it is a Memorial Day for the dead in all wars.

Kentucky, Louisiana, Tennessee and the other states mentioned above will observe Confederate Memorial Day on Friday, June 3, the anniversary of the birthday of Jefferson Davis.

FLAGS ARE OUT today. The American Legion never forgets. There will be brief exercises at cemeteries, wreaths will be placed on graves.

But, on the whole, the populace will not consider the meaning of the day. It is a holiday and most of them are on the highways seeking a change in the scenery.

Some of them won't like the change. If they are able to notice it.

THAT'S WHY, on these three day holidays, I ride the bus.

They are so big that only the most foolhardy driver dares to argue with them. The prudent ones who wish to get home in all one piece, obey that sober thought to Yield. You know, that brings up what you might call a paradox.

YOU ARE DRIVING along the highway and you get irked when the big, bad smelly busses, pull by you.

"That guy thinks he owns the whole road," you mutter. Then you ride the bus.

"Look at that dumb nut trying to cut in," or "Why don't that driver pull over. Doesn't he know the bus has a schedule to make?"

Anyway, after my weekly bus trips, I am happy that I decided to whom a typewriter for a living instead of piloting a bus on the highway merry-go-round.

Lucky Dollar

"As you step from your big South Pacific airliner, you're greeted by charming native girls who welcome you with a kiss and a fragrant lei of frangipani." —SPAL brochure.

We stepped out of the fragrant Honolulu night into the big South Pacific airliner and were greeted by a charming girl. She wore the silver wings with the Dollar flag.

"HOW ABOUT THE smooch, charming native girl?" I said. "How about the frangipani lei?" The stewardess said she was a native of Grand Junction, Colo. And how about a nice cup of coffee? The airlift to Paradise is bumpy.

SOUTH PACIFIC Air Lines flies Constellations once a week now from Honolulu to Bora Bora — the old Dollar Steamship flag is airborne these days. It is an eight-hour flight. (Quite an improvement over the days when we flew two days down to the Fijis. Then two more days back eastward to get to Tahiti.)

"ONE THING ABOUT this flight," said the captain. "You can just about choose your altitude. There's no traffic." The native Colorado girl pulled out the footrests. She tilted us back like a barber chair.

And in the scattered, cloud morning, we slid down over the green lagoon into the lies Sous Le Vent — the Islands under the Wind.

THE AIRFIELD AT Bora Bora is an old wartime strip. Black-topped again temporarily while the airlines wait for the big jet landing that is being built on the coral reef at Tahiti.

A cool, steady trade wind blew across the field at Bora Bora. And we sat under a pandanus — thatch shelter, drinking French coffee and preparing for charming native kisses.

A SORT OF BORA Bora jam session started in one corner — anybody who walked in just picked up a coconut ukelele and joined the music.

A brown Bora Bora girl in a wrap-around blue-and-white print walked around with bare feet and a hip swing you could put in a Swiss watch movement.

OUT OF THE powdered sugar clouds, a creamy-white Bermuda flying boat flew along the background of the island peaks. It circled to meet the red-and-white-striped windsock and dropped down on a sea-green lagoon.

A little launch chugged out and picked up the voyagers from Paradise. They did not look happy to be leaving.

"WE HAD A LAWYER from the States got this far on the return trip last week," said the SPAL captain. "He got this far and he picked up his bags and said: 'Nuts to it!'"

"He put his bags back on the flying boat and went back to Tahiti."

THE LAND PLANE picked up its passengers and flew off to Honolulu. All us lucky people got on the flying boat and went spraying down the lagoon.

And an hour later we swung over Tahiti (where the jet strip is building). And came down with a gentle splash and took the launch to the coco palm shore.

A TAHITIAN GIRL put a lei of jasmine tiare Tahiti around my neck.

She gave me a kiss on BOTH cheeks.

Let me tell you, it was charming!

Tightrope Renewal

HOLLYWOOD — If the TV webs renew series based on their rating strength, how come Tightrope, which has been steadily clobbering all opposition, is hanging on the proverbial limb? It's not on the fall schedule and CBS has adopted a don't-call-us, we'll-call-you attitude when Screen Gems tried to get a commitment.

Lawrence Welk invited Spike Jones Jr., 10, to lead the champion orchestra on his TV SHOW. That's how Welk compromised when Spike asked to do it. Spike's orchestra on that show would never have left it the same.

EVE ARDEN couldn't figure out why the huge personal appearance offer from Australia until she learned Our Miss Brooks was in its first-run Down Under!

Even though Edd Byrnes is back in the Warners saddle, Roger Smith is still the studio's top fan-mail personality!

We got a real inside scoop that an "On the Go" TV show would include a segment pre-taped in San Quentin's gas chamber, in which ex-warden Clinton Duffy stated: "I've never known a rich man to be executed!" Now we learn CBS has ordered that particular line erased from the tape. Why? Just asking!

TV PRODUCERS thinking of doing tape shows in foreign locations better take heed! We learned that Pat Boone's four overseas tapings cost him about 80 G's apiece! Like this: when Pat wanted to get a clear unobstructed view of the Venice canal, he had to pay 16 gondoliers 10 bucks apiece to clear out. Then just as the cameras were about to grind, 50 more gondoliers raced in to collect!

It's refreshing to hear that some of our great actresses of the world don't look down their nose at TV. Maybe they're more sure of themselves than their Hollywood counterparts. Anyway, Maria Schell who racked up quite a success from her TV Ninotchka, can't wait to do Romeo and Juliet in the Village by German Playwright Gottfried Keller.

NOW THAT MY Sister Eileen is cinched for the fall with Elaine Stritch, she's starting her biog. Poor Little Stritch Girl or Shut Up and Drink Your Champagne.

Looking over the 35-page booklet the TV Academy sent members as a guide (memory refresher) toward making their selections for voting, we counted 700, yes, count 'em, 700 entries! Robert Stack said he finally signed the contract for LAST season's Untouchables!

AFTER SOME OF our local Hollywood scribes tore into Irving Wallace's Chapman Report as "filthy" and suggested that young Richard Zanuck not film it, Richard checked five local bookstores only to learn Chapman had been sold out and that the adverse comments have been posted for advertising purposes! Is that show business? But Zanuck assures "I never had any intention to make the wrong kind of movie. We'll use the clinical approach."

Those four great white personality horses of the Ben-Hur chariot race were bought by Glenn Randall in the San Fernando Valley who has them championing at the bit and ready to go on a rodeo tour of 20 cities. Randall has built two chariots (one that will break apart at the seams) for the act.

ALL YOU BOBBY Darin fans can get a little happier. Looks like Bobby will make his movie debut for Columbia Studios in Cry For Happy. Darin has just finished rescuing The Cloister nightclub from closing with his tremendous drawing power. When the King and Queen of Nepal visited the set of All in a Night's Work, Hal Wallis told Shirley MacLaine, "Please, no 'Can-Can' dances!"

AFTER RALPH Bellamy finishes his role of F. D. R. in Sunrise at Campobello, he'll be ready to take the play to London. And it looks like Howard Keel, who always does better acting when in disguise, will do the summer stock routine. All of which is a neat way of publicizing the movie, yes?

Rona Jaffe, the Best of Everything, author, is in Hollywood doing some research for an Ava Gardner biog in — Good Housekeeping. And that's no joke! The stars still make the best copy.

Zsa Zsa Gabor returned from a session of seeing the Broadway shows, comments: "Their attendance is weaker than I've ever seen it. Even a smash hit doesn't sell out!"

Probability that Palm Springs will have its own 18-hole golf course within the city limits loomed large this week after Frank Bennett revealed that the project has moved from the architect's planning board to the final financing after two years of planning. It is planned to have the land owned by a group of 30 backers, with 400 memberships to be issued.

EDITORIAL—Why is nothing being done to rehabilitate Palm Canyon since the disastrous April 21st fire? Why has not a far-sighted program been developed which would seek over a period of a few years to restore the world-famous canyon to its original beauty? Why is reforestation not under way NOW so that the canyon will at least be in fair shape by the time the tourists return in the fall? These are some of the questions thinking Villagers are asking now that the fire is more than a month past and work has not been started in Palm Canyon. Palm Canyon is one of Palm Springs' most priceless assets! Action should be taken at once in order that this asset will not be lost to the future.

Among the stars are Eddie Cantor, Eleanor Hunt and Paul Gregory. The picture is being made in technicolor and will be one of the most beautiful on the screen. Opening shots were taken at Andreas Canyon, with 25 chorus boys and 25 chorus girls riding on 50 horses.

AFTER SUN-SET

A Night For Fond Farewells

By GEORGE LAINE
It's action night in Palm Springs tonight.
Which might sound unusual, depending on whether or not you know and understand the taken-for-granted dearth of activity during the months that bridge April and September.

ANYWAY, TONIGHT marks a rather unusual chain of events for Villagers and visitors.
First of all, the Chi Chi is sending its final two shows of the "season" on the boards, one at 8:45 p.m., the other at 11:45 p.m.
Secondly, Ruby's Dunes, that most favored of all local night spots, tied things up neatly tonight and exits until the fall.
Thirdly, there is a midnight benefit for a good bartender and great guy who happened to fall victim to a heart attack. (It's slated for midnight at the Sportsman.)

YOU'RE NOT GOING to have to look too hard to find a tear in the eye of Petey or Jimmy or Bob or Julian or any of the people who've made the Chi Chi operate this past season. The close of business tonight will mark the first time the Chi Chi has had its doors closed in almost a decade.

The show at the Chi Chi — an unusually good one for this time of year — features Peggy De Castro with Vern Rowe and Bobby Navarro, Jay Lawrence, Carole King and the Bill Alexander Band. It's a great show to close up with and one that people will be talking about for some time to come.

At Ruby's where the food is par excellence and the service ditto, the annual farewell is doubly difficult.

AFTER THOSE TWO wakes are attended, you can bet that 1-like many another Villager — will be off for the Sportsman and Ernie's benefit.

A lot of exceptional people will be along for this one since Ernie was an exceptional man.

The show itself — "New Riders of the Old West" — is enough good fun to entice most of us out once a year as is. With the added incentive of Ernie's bad break, you can figure there'll be a bunch packed into the Bob Howard-Sam Franks club around midnight.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Look for some exciting news regarding the Ferral's Playhouse at Deep Well within the next fortnight... Pappy Landfield's got something up his sleeve for Saturday night — if you can believe the ad at the bottom of the page or make any head or tail of it... Maybe he took my tip — he seldom does — and is holding the international bota shooting championships in the club this weekend... Pepe Callahan's workouts with the Ernie Rocha Trio have taken on a new flavor... In addition to the Latin routines which Pepe has become famous with, the group is also scheduling stateside tempos into its dance sets, thus making the Biltmore one of the only places in town where you don't have to be a cha cha champ in order to survive...

MARY MARTIN NIXES MATINEE TO WATCH CHILD GRADUATE
NEW YORK — (UPI) — There will be no matinee of the hit musical, "The Sound of Music," Saturday June 4.
The star, Mary Martin, had that provision written into her contract a year ago so she could attend the graduation of her daughter, Heller Halliday, from the George School, Newtown, Pa.

THE LIVELY ARTS

N.Y. Actors Can't Close Theaters

By JACK GAVER
NEW YORK — (UPI) — Should Broadway actors quit working June 1 or any time thereafter in event of stalemate in negotiations for a new contract with producers, there still would be a good number of stage plays available in New York.

Those would be in the off-Broadway sector. And you wouldn't have far to go outside the city to find dozens of summer stock theaters in full operation.

ACTORS' EQUITY Association, to which all professional stage players must belong, has three sets of contracts—for the Broadway houses and the commercial legit theaters in other cities the "road"), for the off-Broadway theaters and for the stock theaters.

Earlier this year Equity and the off-Broadway producers agreed on a new two-year contract. Three weeks ago the stock proprietors and the union reached terms on a three-year pact. Actors employed in these fields could stage no sympathy walkouts in behalf of the Broadway players although a vast majority of them also are known as Broadway actors.

WHEN THE EQUITY Broadway contract runs out May 31, which also is the official end of the 1959-60 season, there should be 23 attractions available. These are the ones that would be affected if a walkout were authorized.

Idyllwild Arts Brochure Tells Summer Plans

New brochures for the 1960 season at the Idyllwild Arts Foundation have been sent out this week to more than 25,000 former registrants on the mailing list. One complete booklet gives the total information on the Conservation, music and the arts, the High School Senior High School and children's program for the summer.

An impressive list of workshops are offered by a faculty drawn from many educational institutions from all parts of the country.

THERE WILL BE NEW facilities this season also the largest of which will be the new "Alumni Hall," an enclosed studio for rehearsals, classes and performances which will be formally dedicated on July 4 in honor of the tenth anniversary of ISOMATA.

ISOMATA (The Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts) located in the beautiful San Jacinto mountains 20 miles from Banning and 50 miles from Palm Springs, has grown from an original registration of 40 students to 2,500 in 1959. From all indications of advance registrations, 1960 will top the last figure.

IN ADDITION TO the series of two-week workshops, a schedule of weekend conferences, concerts, plays, and other programs is presented from June 26 to September 4.

Further information is available from the Idyllwild Arts Foundation, Idyllwild California. In the desert area call Fairview 5-6678 between 6 and 9 p.m.

Genuine Characters

'Forced Comedy' Not for Success

By DOUGLAS DILTZ
United Press International—HOLLYWOOD — UPD — The success of a comedy series on television is in not trying too hard to be funny, says producer Irving Pincus.

It also is in making the characters genuine, says Pincus, so they are worth laughing at.

PINCUS, A VETERAN of radio and television who is going into his third year at the helm of video's "Real McCoys" on ABC-TV, believes "forced comedy" causes a lot of shows to flop.

"You can't be funny all of the time," said Pincus. "If you try, you usually end up not being funny at all."

NOBODY CAN argue with Pincus about his formula in view of the success of "The Real McCoys."

"The secret of good comedy," said the producer, "is fundamentally good characterization."

"The emphasis must be on the people in the show. The audience must first come to know them before it can be moved enough to laugh with them or at them."

"THERE ARE 80 many formulas and situations, and they've all been done. What makes or breaks a show is in establishing believable and likable characters and making them react in a human and identifiable way."

"You've got to give them all of the human frailties so they will be loved — and the trick is to establish them quickly."

PINCUS HAS AN impressive background in the theater. He was stage manager for "Anything Goes," was co-author of the Rogers and Hart musical "Higher and Higher" and the play "The More the Merrier."

Inspired by his success, Pincus now is embarking on a new comedy series for TV. It is called "Minding Our Own Business" and is based on the book by Charlotte Paul.

"IT WILL BE another family-type situation comedy show," he said. "It is based on a city newspaperman who moves, with his wife and children, to a backwoods community."

"The comedy is based on the newspaperman's good intentions — as a small town editor — which have a way of backfiring. It will be done under the same formula as my other show."

A SITUATION comedy, Pincus believes, should become a "happy habit" if it expects to last in the competitive field of television. As two good examples, he cited "Father Knows Best" and "Ozzie and Harriet."

"All you need are a few laughs," said Pincus.

AS A MATTER of fact, the producer has a rule for keeping his laughs under regulation.

"When in doubt, cut out the intended laugh. If there's any question about it, it's usually not funny and you'll never miss it. It can do you more harm if it stays in and is wrong."

HORSE RACE DARE BRINGS ROBBERY

Bill Longley accepts a cowpoke's friendly challenge to enter a horse race and winds up in pursuit of two bandits who rob the race sponsor and kidnap the cowboy's girl friend on "The Texan."

Aware that Longley's and Johnny Tuvo's mounts are badly winded after the gruelling run, visiting gunmen Galt Gaylor and Mouse Murphy hold up wealthy rancher Robert Kincaid and flee with Carrie Nagle, Tuvo's fiancée, as hostage.

Rory Calhoun stars as Bill Longley. Featured are Ron Hagerthy as Johnny Tuvo, Mary Webster as Carrie, Myron Healey as Galt Gaylor, Dehl Brier as Mouse Murphy, Frank Wilcox as Kincaid, and Jack Carr as Hanrahan.

Space Capsules To Be Shown

Seen is the vital testing system employed, including the fantastic safety systems to insure that the Astronaut will come back alive; wind tunnel testing of the capsule; and actual test firings of the rockets involved.

Eva Gabor Is Guest Star

Guest star Eva Gabor, hired as a temporary secretary while Olive is on vacation, proves she has a way with a boss when her unscrupulous tactics threaten Katy O'Connor's job on "The Ann Sothern Show" Monday, May 30, CBS Television Network, 9:30-10 p.m. (This is a rebroadcast.)

Ann Sothern stars as Katy O'Connor, assistant manager of the Bartley House hotel with Don Porter as her boss James Devery. Eva Gabor stars as Steffi.

Berle Is Guest on Danny Thomas Show

One of the nation's top comedians — Milton Berle — talks Danny Williams into leaving show business when he makes a guest appearance on "The Danny Thomas Show" on Monday, May 30, CBS Television Network, 9-9:30 p.m. (This is a rebroadcast.)

Danny Williams, played by Danny Thomas, is dejected over poor reviews he has received while performing at New York's Copa Club. His old friend, Milton Berle arrives to cheer him up and announced that he Berle, has quit show business for good and has joined an oil firm as a member of the board of directors.

He convinces Danny that he should do likewise and promises to get him an interview with the president of the firm. After Danny is hired, he is certain that he and Milton have made the wrong decision and sets out to remedy the situation.

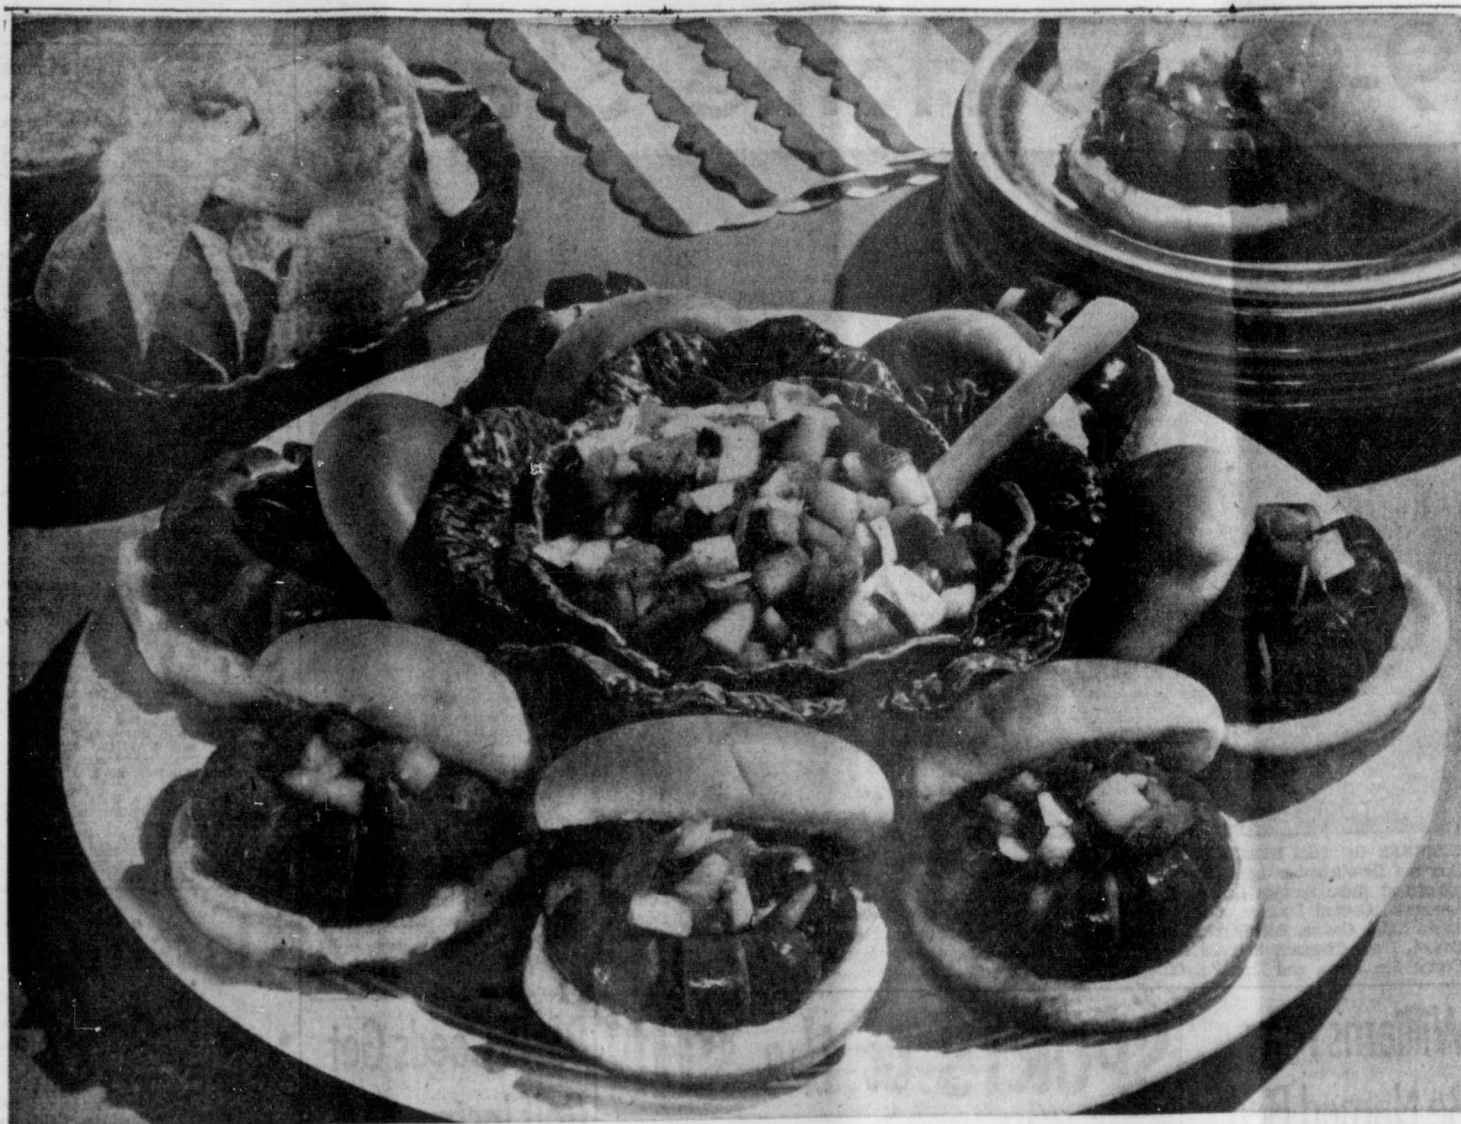

Marjorie Lord co-stars as Danny's wife Kathy. Rusty Hamer and Angela Cartwright are featured as their children Rusty and Linda. Sheldon Leonard produces and directs the comedy series.

RING-A-ROSY hot dogs created especially to fill those round hamburger buns, have a stuffing of chopped vegetables and a rosy sauce, making them an exciting new creation for summer picnics, barbecues or poolside buffets. It's new and different and bound to be rated high on the Summer Food Hit Parade.

'Ring-A-Rosy' Hot Dogs Something New for Picnics

When you serve this round hot dog, you'll leave friends saying: "What will they think of next?" The "Ring-A-Rosy Hot Dog," a rare treat, is being introduced by the National Hot Dog Month Council.

Served on a hamburger roll, you can fill the doughnut-like hole in the center on the round hot dog with condiments, tasty cheese, spicy sauces, crushed pineapple, sauerkraut or chopped vegetables.

'Ring-A-Rosy' Hot Dogs

RINGS — 2 lb. hot dogs, 2 packages hamburger buns.
ROSY SAUCE — 1/4 cup cider vinegar, 1/4 cup water, 1 1/2 teaspoon celery seed, 1 1/2 teaspoon mustard seed, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 4 1/2 teaspoons sugar, dash tabasco.
2 Medium onions, chopped, 6 firm ripe tomatoes cut up, 1 green pepper chopped, 1 cucumber chopped.

Combine vinegar, water, and seasonings. Boil 12 minutes. Pour over chopped vegetables. Cool.
Slash hot dogs horizontally eight times being careful not to cut through bottom. Form into a ring and fasten with a tooth pick. Cook hot dogs on broiler or charcoal grill. Toast buns. Remove tooth picks and place frank on bun. Spoon generous serving of Rosy sauce into hole in center. Serve immediately. Makes 16 sandwiches.

Vegetable Course

Chili blue lakes are a two-in-one vegetable course. Combine one 8-ounce can of tomatoes with 1/2 teaspoon each of chili powder and salt, and 1 tablespoon of instant minced onion in a saucepan. Stir in 1 teaspoon of cornstarch, and cook and stir until mixture boils and is slightly thickened. Add one 1-pound can of blue lake green beans and 1 tablespoon of butter or margarine and heat thoroughly. Serves five to six.

Cherry Blossom Time

Cherry blossom time is any time... when you serve this mouth-watering Cherry Walnut Pie. It's as delicious as it looks here, and there's hardly any work involved. Sour red cherries and chopped walnuts are combined in black cherry-flavored gelatin flavored with a speck of cinnamon. An added garnish of sweetened whipped cream suggests cherry blossoms, to complete a timely dessert with real Spring time appeal.

Cherry Walnut Pie

1 package (3 ounces) black cherry-flavored gelatin
1/8 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup sugar
1 cup hot water

Cherry juice and water to make 3/4 cup
1 can (20 ounces) sour red pie cherries, drained
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1 baked 9-inch pie shell

Mix gelatin and cinnamon. Add sugar and dissolve in hot water. Add cherry juice and water. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in cherries and nuts. Pour into baked pie shell. Chill until firm. Garnish with sweetened whipped cream, if desired.

Brides Advised to Read What It Says on Labels

URBANA, Ill. — UPI — The many kinds of blankets on the market today will give different kinds of service.

Jane Werden, home economist at the University of Illinois, advises brides to check on fiber content and care of blankets before buying.

Synthetic blankets have much to recommend them, Miss Werden said. They're easy to care for, launder, do not shrink and need no mothproofing. Synthetics can also be as warm as wool and weigh less, but Miss Werden cautions that most synthetics pull and generate static electricity.

Rayon blankets cost less than true synthetics and come in more colors. But they are not as warm as the more resilient synthetics and won't spring back after crushing, Miss Werden said.

Read the labels to determine fiber content, Miss Werden said. The generic names of synthetic fibers now used in blankets are acrylic, modacrylic and nylon. Most labels will carry these names as well as such trade names as Orlon and Acrilan.

Whatcom County Reunion Planned

Former residents of Whatcom County, Washington, will be picnicking in Pasadena on Sunday June 12. They will assemble at 2 p.m. in Section L of Brookside Park in Pasadena.

ON A GLOBE CIRCLING CRUISE are the Earl Hendersons, who are photographed aboard American President Lines' SS President Monroe just before the ship sailed from San Francisco for the Orient and around the world. During their three month cruise they will visit 24 ports in 14 countries, returning to San Francisco via the Panama Canal and Acapulco.

Make Study of Monastic Diet

CHICAGO — UPI — If low fat diets have anything to do with arteriosclerotic heart disease, Trappist monks should be relatively free of the disorder.

A study reported in the Annals of Internal Medicine showed that the Trappists, who are vegetarians, had cholesterol levels considerably lower than Benedictine monks—who eat meat.

'Leaves' Are Packing Aid

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK — UPI — Take a leaf from the book of one well-traveled miss when you do your own vacation packing. Use luggage "leaves" to ease the job.

These "leaves" are the do-it-yourself variety — layers of non-woven material which you can buy at any yard goods counter and which seamstresses use for clothes interfacing. Cut several layers to fit your suitcase (seven will do for most packing jobs) and stitch on handles, or lifts, made of the same material.

The "leaves" become lift-out trays, separating into layers various parts of the wardrobe. Use a ballpoint pen to label each handle according to contents of the tray.

"The leaves help in three ways," said Carol Lane, who is women's travel director for the Shell Oil Co. "They give a flat surface so you can get more in a suitcase, they absorb wrinkles, and they provide a filing system so you can lift out an item without disturbing everything else."

Miss Lane travels 60,000 miles a year gathering information on vacation spots, and talking with women's groups about packing methods or traveling with children. She said that with the layer method a girl can get all she needs for a two weeks vacation in to one 26-inch suitcase.

She suggested that any packing start with a list. Stick with one basic color — black, navy, gray or beige — in suits and dresses and use bright accessories.

For the two weeks at a summer resort, Miss Lane would divide a wardrobe into five basic parts: —The travel suit with scarf, blouse and necklace for a change of its appearance.

—A costume which can go from day into evening, preferably a two-piece dress with a flared skirt if the travel suit has a straight skirt.

—A costume for spectator sports: could be a cotton knit or a sheath which you can "dress up or down" with jewelry and other accessories.

—A simply cut skirt, reversible if possible, and three or four blouses to go with it.

—And active sportswear of one or two bathing suits and bermuda shorts.

Pack all heavy items, such as shoes, travel iron and cosmetics other than those you will need for an overnight stop, in the bottom of the suitcase.

Pack jewelry in small flannel bags normally used to protect silverware. This way, necklaces and earrings don't get tangled, and there is no danger of tarnish if you are vacationing at the seashore.

Use household aluminum foil crunched together into a tube for stuffing dress or suit sleeves and in between folds in skirts. Miss Lane said foil worked better than tissue paper at keeping down wrinkles.

Put stockings inside gloves to prevent snags. Pin blouses, like men's shirts, on cardboard from the laundry. Pack lingerie and nightwear in small plastic bags to keep them from slithering around in the suitcase.

And tuck a washcloth in with your shower cap. Miss Lane said that this necessity often is lacking at hotels and motels.

When egg whites are whipped and allowed to stand, their delicate air cells break down. For best results, don't whip egg whites until just before you're ready to use them.

To Observe 'June Is Dairy Month'

Cows, being the quiet, docile creatures they are, just don't go around bragging about Southern California's number one in the nation dairy industry. So to honor the 24-hour-a-day efforts of this area's 200,000 cows, Brookside Dairy's Henry van Mouwerik invites the general public to join in the annual "June Is Dairy Month" observance.

Actually every month is "June Is Dairy Month" in Southern California because local residents consume far more than the national average of all dairy foods. In the cottage cheese department, for instance, Southern Californians eat almost twice the national average.

If you're wondering how you stack up with your neighbors in consuming health and energy giving dairy foods, here are the local dairy product consumption figures for the average person in Southern California.

Each year the average person consumes 35 gallons of fluid milk, 2 gallons of cream and half-and-half, 28 gallons of skim milk and chocolate drink, 2.2 gallons of buttermilk, 9 pounds of cottage cheese, 8.8 pounds of butter, 3.8 gallons of ice cream, 8 pounds of cheese, and 1.6 gallons of evaporated milk... all, Brookside Dairy is happy to state, at lower prices than almost any other metropolitan area in the nation.

You're all invited to become members of the "June Is Dairy Month" Committee. The secret-pass-word is "Make Mine Milk," and the words can bring you and your family health and energy during June and every other month of the year.

Meet Cards Tonight

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers came home today for a 19-game stand at the old Coliseum—hoping their winning ways didn't rub off during the trip from Chicago.

The Dodgers got back on the victory path Sunday against the Cubs on Duke Snider's two home runs that moved him to 10th place in the all-time homer hitters list and gave Los Angeles a 4-0 win.

MANAGER WALTER Alston, in naming side-winding Don Drysdale to oppose the St. Louis Cardinals tonight in the Memorial Day home coming game, said he didn't expect the Dodgers to win "em all."

"Just give me three or four in a row, then a loss, then three or four more. I don't want to set any records," Alston said.

HIS TEAM HAS been winning the "three or four" he added. The Dodgers, after a horrendous slump, won five in a row before the Cubs edged them Saturday. They got back on line Sunday.

Drysdale, 4-4, will oppose the Cardinals' Ernie Broglio, 1-1, in the game tonight where Dodger officials expect a crowd of better than 35,000 fans.

ALSTON, ALTHOUGH gladdened by the Dodger win streak and improved style of play by the world champions, still was thinking seriously about special batting drills for Snider, John Roseboro and Gil Hodges.

Snider looked like anything but a man in need of batting practice Sunday when he clubbed his 357th and 358th homers of his career.

HE KNOCKED IN all the Dodger runs and Johnny Podres got his second shutout although he became sick and had to leave play in the final inning from Larry Sherry.

The win allowed the Dodgers to close out the road trip with an 8-6 record that left them in sixth place 5½ games off the pace set jointly by the San Francisco Giants — the only team that doesn't come to the Coliseum during this home stand — and the amazing Pirates from Pittsburgh.

Two U. S. Women Golf Stars Win In Second Round

HARLECH, Wales — (UPI) — Joanne Gunderson, Kirkland, Wash., and Mrs. Ann Stranahan, Toledo, Ohio, led the U. S. contingent into the third round of the British Women's Amateur Golf Championship today.

Miss Gunderson defeated Christine Phipps of Wales, 6 and 5, and Mrs. Stranahan, despite a faulty putter, defeated Mrs. R. Oliver of England, 1 up, after 19 holes.

Both U.S. stars had drawn first round byes. Only one U. S. entrant was eliminated in the first round, Judy Bell, Wichita, Kan., losing to Vi. comtesse Saint Seuveur of France 1 up.

Joe Cruz, Bobby Celso and Dixie Celso, Nash Aranas, Chin Hung, and Clifford Lee; fourth row, Mel Soran, Ernie Quiroz, Bud Bach-told, Eddie King, Vince Lombardi and Fred Revelala. The Beachcombers League started small but has branched out and now includes virtually every employee of the food emporium with some members rolling near the 200 mark. (Desert Sun Photo)

Williams May Be Named Red Sox Manager

NEW YORK — (UPI) — The Boston Red Sox are expected to dismiss Manager Billy Jurges within a few days and offer the job to Ted Williams, even though he repeatedly has said he doesn't want it.

Despite Williams' protestations owner Tom Yawkey will ask him to take over the post and feels that he will, the United Press International has learned on excellent authority.

IN BALTIMORE, where the Red Sox dropped into the American League cellar by losing a doubleheader to the Orioles Sunday, Williams said he had not been offered the job yet and still indicated he wouldn't accept it if it is offered to him.

Red Sox officials with the club said they knew nothing as to whether Jurges was in or out although traveling secretary Tom Dowd said, "If any change is contemplated it may be made when the team gets back to Boston."

YAWKEY AND General Manager Bucky Harris conferred in Boston Sunday and there was no comment from the Red Sox owner regarding the managerial situation.

Yawkey and Williams are close friends, each being a warm admirer of the other. The Red Sox owner realizes Williams' name is magic in and around Boston and that, no matter what, he will always be a prime favorite with New England fans.

Another factor is the $100,000 Ted is drawing chiefly for sitting on the bench. He'd certainly earn it much more as a manager where he undoubtedly would be a tremendous box-office attraction.

ORIOLES TAKE 2 GAME LEAD IN AL

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press International
The Baltimore Orioles, displaying great early speed, hit the Memorial Day quarter-pole in the American League race with a two-length lead today, while the San Francisco Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates were running neck-and-neck in the National League chase.

Many baseball experts believe the Orioles are strictly sprinters who will fold when the real running begins. However, they are equally certain that Paul Richards has staked out an early claim for manager of the year honors because of the way he has jockeyed Baltimore to the front of the AL pack.

RICHARDS MADE all the right moves Sunday as the Orioles swept a doubleheader from the Red Sox, 6-1 and 5-4. The lean man from Waxahachie, Tex., called on Gene Woodling as a pinch-hitter in the ninth inning of the second game with the scored tied 4-4 and Woodling singled home the winning run.

The Orioles had tied the score earlier in the ninth on a two-run homer by Ron Hansen. Milt Pappas, out since May 20 with a sore elbow, gained the victory with two innings of scoreless relief pitching.

ROOKIE STEVE Barber stopped the Red Sox with six hits in posting his fifth victory against one loss in the opener. The Orioles wrapped up the game in the sixth inning with a four-run burst.

PSHS Coeds Get Golf Instruction At High School

Physical education classes at Palm Springs High School are now offering golf to junior and senior girls as part of the new program to help teenagers take advantage of the opportunities of the "Win of golf—grips, stance, and swing

Upperclassmen at the present time are learning the basic strokes of golf: grip, stance, and swing —along with the necessary rules of golf etiquette and terminology.

The course is not designed to make golf pros out of the students, but to teach them enough about the golf so that they could feel at home in a real game situation," said teacher Miss Bonnie Anderson.

Clubs being mastered by the girls are the wood, and the five and nine iron, with which they will play a mock game on the miniature course to be set up on the physical education field in order to provide the girls with experience in situations a real game might entail.

Musial Benching To Be 'Indefinite'

ST. LOUIS — (UPI) — Stan Musial will remain benched for "an indefinite period but there are no ulterior motives," St. Louis Cardinal General Manager Bing Devine said today.

"We just want to have the best team on the field," Devine said. "That means Bill White at first base. He's been hitting. Stan is a great ballplayer but he's not hitting."

Musial's lifetime batting average is .337. Last season his average was .255 and it is .250 now.

Reschedule Bout

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI) — The light heavyweight bout between Carl (Bobo) Olson of San Francisco and South Africa's Mike Holt, originally set for last Saturday night, was rescheduled for June 6 because Holt suffered an influenza attack.

SIMPSON SPEEDS SCHOOL CHANGES

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The last person anyone would accuse of being a revolutionary is California's Superintendent of Public Instruction Roy E. Simpson. Yet this cautious administrator, elected since 1945 to head the state's public schools, has moved with remarkable speed to answer public outcry for higher educational standards. At times he has been far ahead of his troops.

SIMPSON'S RECENT proposal calling for a study of uniform tests to be given California students at specified grade levels caught at least two members of his own staff by surprise. He went to a statewide convention of elementary school administrators last month to ask them to consider a testing program not unlike one advocated by James B. Conant, former president of Harvard University.

IT WAS something like asking a group of freeway commuters to consider the body-building benefits of the bicycle. Many local administrators back away from uniform tests, lest scores be used to measure them as well as their students. In somewhat less dramatic fashion, Simpson recently has nudged his own Department of Education along new "basic education" routes. He roused from five years of hibernation, largely through his personal efforts, the new proposal to tighten teacher training requirements.

WITHOUT A MURMUR, he voluntarily yielded supervision of the state colleges to the new board set up under the master plan for higher education. "The colleges have just become too big for the department staff," he says. Steadily, word went down through the department in recent months that there had been a change of attitude in the director's office. Last year's cheerleaders for "life adjustment" became this year's doeliners.

NEWS OF THE change has been

Postal Face Red NORMAN, Okla. (UPI) — Mrs. Myrtle Lee Autrey, postmaster, found this note from an annoyed patron stuck on a stamp-vending machine which frequently broke down: "You fight rain, sleet, snow and hail; why can't you whip this cotton-pickin' machine?"

CC WITNESSES SET FOR L.A. CONCLAVE

Wright Field, Los Angeles, has been selected for a regional convention of Jehovah's Witnesses, July 7-10. Announcement of the four-day gathering which is expected to draw more than 25,000 delegates was made by Aime Begin, presiding minister of the local Cathedral City congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

ORGANIZATIONAL arrangements are under the supervision of Sheld Halvajan, Ingleside minister and convention manager. Appointment of department heads and preliminary assignments to coordinate the twenty-two convention departments was made by Mr. Halvajan at a special meeting of ministers from 125 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses from southern California and Arizona.

Mr. Halvajan will start off the assembly organization Saturday, June 4, when 2500 members of Jehovah's Witnesses gather at the Los Angeles Trade - Tech Jr. College.

HE WILL introduce Edgar A. Flinn of San Diego, veteran rooming manager, who will instruct the 2,500 vanguard workers for canvassing the Los Angeles area for rooms to house the visiting delegates.

The assembly will be sponsored by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York and is one of 13 assemblies to be held in the United States and Canada this summer.

Many other like assemblies will be held in Australia, Great Britain, and Europe during the year and will feature speakers from the world headquarters as well as district, circuit and local ministers.

About 85 per cent of the more than million miles of paved roads, streets and highways in the United States are surfaced with petroleum asphalt.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: After an 8-year friendship with another couple, my husband and my best friend confessed they have been "in love" for five years. They asked for divorces so they could marry. (We have 3 children and they have 2.) There was nothing so could do but give them their freedom. They married February 14th, the day their divorces became final.

The jilted husband has been coming to see me and has been taking me out. I am so lonely and so is he and we have a lot in common. I think I could care for him and he says he wants to marry me. He'd make a good husband, but my parents are against it. They say people will say it was one of those "husband swapping deals" that was cooked up a long time ago. Please help me do the right thing, Abby. I don't want to ruin my reputation.

VICTIM OF GOSSIP DEAR VICTIM: If you have walked straight — don't worry if your shadow is crooked. You are both free agents now. What your heart tells you is more important than what "people will say."

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a friend of mine. When he gets mad or excited he literally pulls the hair out of his head one by one. He has little bald patches already from this ridiculous practice. He has me worried sick. I think he is heading for a nervous breakdown. What can I do to help him?

HAIR PULLER'S FRIEND DEAR FRIEND: Pulling the hair out one's head in a fit of temper or excitement is hardly normal behavior. You can't help him unless you are a psychiatrist. I suspect that is what your friend needs.

DEAR ABBY: We girls would like you to help us settle a discussion we have been having. What, in your opinion, is the most attractive age for a woman?

THE COFFEE BREAKERS DEAR COFFEE BREAKERS: I would say 39. The proof is that millions of women, by their own choice, remain 39 for years.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For
